

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Entrex Oil and Gas Market Announces LOI
Executed with ReoStar Energy Corp (OTC: REOS)

Boca Raton, FL. February 17, 2021: Entrex (OTC: UNSS) (<https://Entrex.Market>) is pleased to announce that the Entrex Oil and Gas Market has finalized the execution for the letter of intent to merge Oil and Gas private company production into REOS.

“Our mission is simplifying private company capital access; when we compared the speed to market of a new company and filings - versus a merger to assemble cash-flowing oil and gas production - we saw the costs, benefits and speed much faster through this merger than alternatives available” said Stephen H. Watkins CEO of the Entrex Oil and Gas Market.

Rich French, Business Development of the Entrex Oil and Gas Market suggests: “As the multitude of private oil and gas companies commit production through the market – we needed a simple path to capital access for all. Together we see this as a win-win for both companies and investors to acquire yield – while having access to liquidity and potentially capital appreciation opportunities”. “We believe the REOS shareholders will see the benefit of the cash-flowing companies, quarterly payments and liquidity. It is a unique opportunity to have public capital access a diversified basket of private oil and gas company’s production”.

Peter H. Koch, CEO of ReoStar Energy Corp., commented “The Entrex team offered a unique opportunity to the REOS shareholders which brings their market leadership together with REOS to create a win-win for the shareholders, Entrex and the private companies and capital they serve.”.
